

Holiday Stroll and Art Exhibit

November 26, 2008 - Chester Springs, PA - Holiday Happenings December 4 and 5, 2008

There is no better way to get in the holiday mood then by adding the village of Yellow Springs to your activity calendar. Find unique gifts for those special people on your list and treat you and the whole family to some holiday fun.

"Images of Yellow Springs" Exhibit and Sale Preview Party is on Friday, December 4 between 6 and 8 p.m. featuring images of the village by artists who exhibit in the annual Yellow Springs Art Show. This juried exhibition will lead to the selection of the poster artist for the 2009 Art Show.

The annual Holiday Stroll begins at 6 pm and continues through 8:30 pm on December 5. Festivities include tree lighting, a holiday puppet show by Segal Puppet Theatre and Company, and 'make and take' holiday crafts for the youngsters. Santa will visit the village at 7 pm. Art demonstrations and an opportunity to register for winter classes at the Chester Springs Studio will be available. Included in the evening's activities will be the Student Photography Exhibit and Sale along with the sale of fine arts and crafts from the Chester Springs Studio. Children can hear special holiday stories in the Chester Springs Library. Throughout the evening there will be light refreshments and holiday music including the Strolling Strings of the Lionville Middle School. The village has been festively decorated by the Whitford Hills Garden Club.

The event is free to the public. Art School Road will be closed between 5:45 and 8:30 pm. The Holiday Stroll will take place in the event of rain or snow flurries. The Holiday Stroll is sponsored in part by West Pikeland Township. For more information call (610) 827-7414, extension 10 or online at www.yellowsprings.org.
